3. G.O.Ms. No. 167 Finance (BG1) Dated 31.03.04.

ORDER

In the G.O. first read above the Government have issued orders authorizing the Director of Rural Development to sanction and release state share of funds in respect of the following centrally sponsored, schemes (shared between center and state) in four instalments subject to certain conditions.

- I. Jawahar Rozgar Yojana
- II. Indira Awaaz Yojana
- III. Million Wells Scheme
- IV. Employment Assurance Scheme
- V. Integrated Rural Development Programme
- VI. TRYSEM and
- VII. DWCRA (including CCA and IEC)

2. Subsequently, the seven schemes mentioned in para 1 above have been amalgamated and renamed into three schemes. A few more Centrally Sponsored Schemes / launched subsequently are implemented currently The Government of India releases their share in two instalments. According to the guidelines of the schemes, if the state government do not release funds within 15 days from the date of release by Government of India they impose a cut in the release of funds in the subsequent instalment. The Director of Rural Development has therefore requested delegation of powers to release the state share in two instalment in respect of centrally sponsored schemes.

1. Sampoorna Gramin Rozgar Yojana
2. Indira Awaaz Yojana (New and Kutcha houses)
3. Swarnajayanthi Gram Swarozgar Yojana.
4. Pradhan Mantri Gramodaya Yojana (Rural shelter)
5. DRDA Administration cost.

The Director of Rural Development has also requested delegation of powers to him to release fund in two instalments in respect of the following state schemes also in order to facilitate speedy implementation of the scheme.

- i) Self sufficiency schemes.
- ii) Construction of office buildings for village administrative officers.
- iii) Member of Legislative Assembly Constituency Development Scheme.
- iv) Additional fund in concrete road for New Houses under IAY schemes.
