

1.19 Service qualifications/training not insisted for a period of five years for promotion of Madras unit staff as Extension Officers and Deputy BDOs - Amendment

Rural Development (E VI) Department

G.O. (Ms) No. 12

Dated : 13.01.1993

Read :

G.O. (Ms) No. 585, Rural Development and Local Administration, dated 12.04.1984.

ORDER

In the Government order read above, Government while formulating new service rules for the Panchayat Development Department laid above down certain principles. In paragraph – 5(i) to (iv) of the above Government order, Government stipulated certain service qualifications, for promotion to the post of Assistant, Accountant, Rural Welfare Officer Grade I, Extension Officer and Deputy Block Development Officer and training to the Assistant and Extension Officer in the Madras District Unit, for promotion as Extension Officer and Deputy Block Development Officer respectively. In paragraph – 5(V), it was indicated that the service qualification mentioned in items – (i), (ii) and (iii) would not be insisted for a period of five years from the date publication of the now rules in the Gazette. Such concession should have been extended to Assistant and Extension Officer in the Madras District Unit also. The Government after careful consideration have decided to issue necessary amendments to the Government order read above. The following amendment is issued to the Government order cited.

AMENDMENT

In the said Government order, in paragraph – (5), for item (v), the following item shall be substituted namely: -

"(v) The service qualification / training mentioned in items (i), (ii), (iii) and (iv) will not be insisted for a period of five years from the date of publication of the new rules in the Gazette".

2. The above amendment shall be deemed to have come into force with effect from 12.04.1984.

3. Necessary amendments to the Tamil Nadu Panchayat Development Subordinate Service Rules, Tamil Nadu Ministerial service Rules will be issued separately.
