1. G.O.(Ms) No. 163, Rural Development and Panchayat Raj Department dated 24.9.2007.
2. From the Managing Director, Tamilnadu Corporation for Development of Women Ltd., D.O.Lr.No. 45/Estt/IFAD/2008, dated 31.01.2008.

ORDER

The Managing Director, Tamilnadu Corporation for Development of Women Ltd., in his letter second read above has stated that a panel of willing persons for various posts from the respective Government Departments on Deputation basis was called for by him. However, the following difficulties are experienced in recruiting persons for various posts for State Level Project Management Unit and District Implementation Offices of International Fund for Agricultural Development Project through Deputation.

- I. The Parent Departments are often reluctant to relieve good hands due to dearth of staff.
- II. Applicants from Open Market may possess necessary qualification, but they are totally unfamiliar with Government procedures which is crucial.

2) The Managing Director, Tamilnadu Corporation for Development of Women Ltd. has further stated that in such situation, applications are received from several retired persons, who have sufficient experience and knowledge in Government procedures in the relevant fields and willingness are expressed by them to work in the Project and requested permission to consider retired persons from Government service for suitable posts by the way of selection through due interview procedure before a committee and the individuals so selected will be paid on the rates indicated for open market recruitment.

3. The Government after careful examination of the proposal of the Managing Director, Tamil Nadu Corporation for Development of Women Ltd. has decided to accept the proposal and accordingly order to appoint retired Government officials in the Project Management Unit and District Implementation Offices created for implementation of International Fund for Agricultural Development Projects and direct that such appointed persons may be paid consolidated pay fixed for them in full without considering the pension drawn by the individuals.

4. This order issues with the concurrence of Finance Department vide U.O. No.656/FS/P/08 dated 26.2.2008.
