21.4 The Tamil Nadu Panchayats (Acquisition and Transfer of Immovable property) Rules, 2000

(G.O. (Ms) No.209,Rural Development (C-4), Department, Dated 17.08.2000)

In exercise of the powers conferred by clause (xix) of sub-section (2) of Section 242 of the Tamil Nadu Act, 1994 (Tamil Nadu Act 21 of 1994) and in supersession of the Rules relating to Acquisition and Transfer of Immovable Properties, the Governor of Tamil Nadu hereby makes the following Rules:-

RULES

1. Short title - These Rules may be called the Tamil Nadu Panchayats (Acquisition and Transfer of Immovable Property) Rules, 2000.

2. Definitions -In these Rules, unless the context otherwise requires, "Form" and "Schedule" shall mean the Forms and Schedules appended to these Rules.

3. Condition for acquisition of immovable property - (1) Every Panchayat shall acquire any immovable property subject to the conditions that

(a) the property, if intended for any purpose other than roads, bridges, culverts or quarries, is approved by the Deputy Director of Public Health and Preventive Medicine of the district concerned or any person authorised by him as suitable from the public health and sanitary point of view for the purpose for which it is intended;

(b) the property is also approved by the Engineer of the Government department specified by the Government, from time to time, as suitable for the purpose for which it is intended in cases when the estimated cost exceeds ten thousand rupees;

(c) the property, if the value exceeds ten thousand rupees and if it is intended for educational purposes, is also approved by the Chief Educational Officer of the district;

(d) the property, if its value exceeds ten thousand rupees and if it is intended for dispensaries, is approved by the Joint Director of Medical Services of the district concerned also;

(e) the property, shall not be acquired otherwise than under the Land Acquisition Act, 1894 (Central Act I of 1894), unless the previous approval of the Collector has been obtained therefor;

(f) in the case of lands acquired otherwise than under the said Act, a valuation certificate is obtained from the Revenue Department and that no amount in excess of such valuation shall be paid without obtaining the specific approval of the Collector in that behalf;

(g) in the case of buildings, a valuation certificate and a certificate of structural stability are obtained from the Engineer of the Government department as prescribed by the Government and that no amount in excess of such valuation shall be paid without obtaining the specific approval of the Collector in that behalf; and

(h) in every case where the consideration for the property is not less than two thousand rupees, an encumbrance certificate is obtained from the Registration Office in respect of such property and examined by the legal adviser of the Panchayat concerned unless the nature of the transaction is such as will.

(2) The deed transferring the property to the Panchayat shall be in the appropriate Form in Schedule I, with such variations as circumstances may require.

(3) The provisions of sub-Rules (1) and (2) shall not apply to a case, where the Panchayat has to purchase immovable property brought to sale in the execution of a Court decree obtained by it.

4. Transfer otherwise than by lease of immovable property vesting in but not belonging to a Panchayat - (I) immovable property vesting in but not belonging to a Panchayat shall not be transferred or charged in contravention of the conditions subject to which such property became vested in the Panchayat.

(2) The deed of transfer shall be in the appropriate Form in Schedule II, with such variations as circumstances may require.

5. Transfer otherwise than by lease of immovable property belonging to a Village Panchayat or Panchayat Union Council - (1) A panchayat shall not, without the previous sanction of the Inspector, make or sanction any transfer, except by way of lease, of any immovable property belonging to it, or create or sanction the creation of any charge upon any such property. If the value of the property to be transferred or the amount for which the charge to be created exceeds fifty thousand rupees, the previous sanction of the Government shall also be obtained for such transaction.

(2) The deed of transfer shall be in the appropriate Form in Schedule II with such variations as circumstances may require.

6. Transfer by lease of immovable property belonging to a Panchayat - (1) A Panchayat may lease out any immovable property belonging to it:

Provided that no such lease shall be valid in case the period of the lease exceeds three years or where the Lessee is permitted to put up any building or structure whether of masonry, bricks, wood, mud or any other material unless the sanction of the Collector has been obtained therefor.

(2) The lease deed shall be in Form III (a) in Schedule III with such variations as circumstances may require.

7. Transfer by lease of immovable property vested in but not belonging to a Panchayat

(1) A Panchayat may lease out any property vested in but not belonging to the Panchayat other than road sides and street margins.

Provided that no lease shall be granted -

- (a) In contravention of the conditions subject to which such property became vested in the Panchayat; or
- (b) for a period exceeding twelve months without the previous sanction of the Collector.

Provided further that no such lease shall be valid if the Lessee is permitted to put up any building or structure whether of masonry, bricks, wood, mud or any other material, unless the sanction of the Collector has been obtained therefor.

(2) The lease - deed shall be in the Form III (a) in Schedule III with such variations as circumstances may require.

8. Lease of road sides and street margins - (1) Leases of road sides and street margins vested in a Panchayat shall be subject to the following certificates and control:

(i) Every Panchayat shall require that every application for a lease shall furnish information as to the use to which the land will be put and the period for which a lease is required. If any structure is proposed to be constructed thereon, information as to the materials to be used in the construction shall also be furnished.

(ii) The lease may be granted by the Panchayat if the structure is to be constructed of temporary materials such as palmyrah or coconut leaves, bamboo or other matting or gunny cloth or other similar materials or which are of such a nature as to be movable daily and if the period of lease does not exceed twelve months. A fee shall be levied and collected in advance for every lease.

(iii) No lease for a structure made of materials other than those mentioned in item (ii) or for a period exceeding twelve months, shall be granted by a Panchayat except with the previous approval of the Collector who in granting approval may lay down such conditions as he may consider necessary subject to which the lease may be granted by the Panchayat. The Panchayat shall embody such conditions in the lease before it is granted. It must be expressly provided in every case that amount of the lease shall be paid to the Panchayat in advance so long as the lease is in force and that in default of payment of such amount; the lease is liable to the cancelled.

(iv) No lease shall be granted ordinarily for a period exceeding three years at a time. The approval of the Collector shall not be necessary for a renewal of a lease granted under this Rule.

(v) Every lease under item (ii) or (iii) shall expressly provided that the lease is liable to be terminated at any time within the period of the lease without payment of compensation to the Lessee if, in the opinion of the Panchayat or of the Collector, it is necessary in the public interest to remove any structure erected on the land.

(vi) No road margin shall be leased out for cultivation.

(2) The lease - deed shall be in Form III (b) in Schedule III with such variations as circumstances may require.

9. Publication of proposed transfers and leases - (1) In every case of transfer falling under Rules 4,5,6 or 7, the Panchayat shall publish a notice of the proposed transfer, giving full particulars of the property to be transferred, the name of the proposed Transferee or Lessee and the consideration for the transfer or the rent reserved under the lease -

(a) In the District Gazette, if the consideration for the transfer exceeds ten thousand rupees; and

(b) by affixture in a conspicuous place in the village where the property lies -

(i) at the offices of the Village Panchayat, Panchayat Union Council, District Panchayat and of the Collector;

(ii) at the Village Chavadi of the Village in which the property is situated; and

(iii) on the property to be transferred.

(2) In every case where such transfer is to be made by public auction, a notice with full particulars of the property to be transferred shall be published -

(a) in the District Gazette and in one or two prominent local Tamil newspapers, circulated within the jurisdiction of the Village Panchayat, if the consideration for the transfer exceeds ten thousand rupees;

(b) in the manner specified in clause (b) of sub - Rule (1); and

(c) by tom - tom in suitable places.

10. Transfer and leases to be subject to condition of Transferees or Lessees paying assessment, ground rent, peshkash or quit rent to Government - (1) Except in cases falling under sub- rule (3), no transfer of any immovable property made by the Village Panchayat shall be valid unless it be a condition thereof that the Transferee shall be liable to pay to the Government such assessment, ground - rent, peshkash or quit - rent, as the Collector may determine to be payable in respect of the property and that the said assessment, ground - rent, peshkash or quit - rent, is subject to revision, from time to time, in accordance with the Rules in force at the time of such revision except in respect of quit - rent on enfranchised inam lands and peshkash on lands in proprietary villages acquired by the Panchayat by private negotiation.

(2) Nothing contained in this Rule shall affect the right of the Government to recover from the Panchayat, the assessment, ground - rent, peshkash or quit-rent leviable on lands not transferred by sale or exchange or otherwise permanently alienated.

(3) In cases where the assessments, ground - rent, peshkash or quit - rent leviable on the land after transfer is already being paid by the Panchayat and the land is not transferred by sale or exchange leased in perpetuity or otherwise permanently alienated, the Village Panchayat shall continue to pay such assessment, ground - rent, peshkash or quit - rent and the liability shall not be imposed on the Transferee.
